• Everything was listed in the syllabus, which was so helpful to follow up and plan for throughout the course.

6 - Please provide an example of one or more valuable things you gained while taking this course (such as an idea, way of thinking, creative strategy, technical skill, etc.).
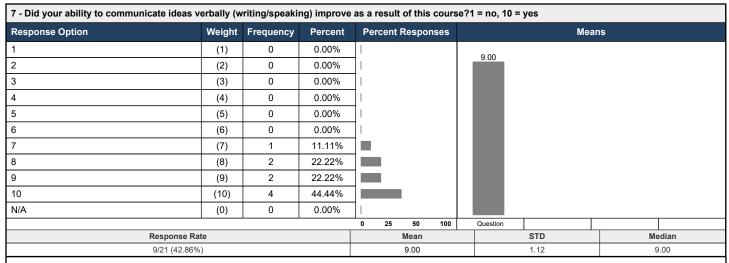

Response Rate	4/21 (19.05%)

• I really learned a lot about the feminist world

• I learned a new way of thinking, understanding the another idea, and strengthen my arguments.

• I was exposed to many facets, theories, and perspectives having to do with the feminist agenda that provided me with more of a well rounded scope of feminism to this day (and its past), but the most valuable to me was that I was exposed to the theories regarding intersectionality, which greatly define my feminist ideas.

• The class is heavily based on discussion boards on canvas and synchronous discussion. A lot of the readings widened my knowledge of the feminist movement and its goals. The lectures were extremely helpful in understanding complicated readings.

• Chat box in the zoom was little bit more helpful for me to use. Also, I feel my writing skill is improved through thinking a lot and organizing my idea.

• This was the first philosophy class I had ever taken so I learned how to speak about philosophical topics as well as write about them in an essay format

9 - How would you describe this course to a fellow student? What might they gain from taking this course?

Response Rate
	4/21 (19.05%)

• You will learn about different feminist philosophers views on curtain topics

• It is good course to start to learn what feminism is about. It will helpful to get new insight toward misogyny in our society.

• I would say that this course is good for exposure to many different perspectives and aspects of feminism, but would caution them that it is being taught by a man. I would say that they would gain a more well informed perspective, especially if they are more proactive with participation.

• We got assigned 2-3 readings per week for which we had to do a discussion board for- one question and respond to someone else's question. During our synchronous sessions we discussed the assigned readings. We had 2 presentations over the semester where we had to present 1-2 readings and explain the concepts/ideas they present. We wrote 2 essays overall (4-5 pages). I really enjoyed learning about feminist topics and ideas. The discussions weren't very engaging over zoom as most people did not have much to contribute. The lectures provided by Daniel were very informative.

10 - Is there anything else you want us to know regarding the course, curriculum, or facilities/resources?

• Daniel is very nice, I learned a lot and would definitely recommend taking his class.

• Professor Skibra have provided the pdf files of all the readings, but I feel if there is a research paper, it would help to use the resources from library to learn more about. But since it is Intro to Feminist Theory, I understand and enjoyed what he have prepared for the class.
